Keynote Speakers – Steve Angrisano & Tony Melendez

Steve Angrisano is recognized as one of the most dynamic and effective communicators with Christian youth in the country. A singer, songwriter and storyteller, Steve creates relevant, dynamic music for liturgy and listening, proclaiming that through Christ we have the power to carry out God's work.

He's been featured at major youth events nationally and internationally, including three World Youth Days, five National Catholic Youth Conferences and countless parish, and diocesan events. A parish musician, music director and youth minister for 11 years, Steve's focus is, and has always been, one of honest ministry.

Tony Melendez is a popular speaker and performer and has performed for Popes, Presidents and appeared at past World Youth Days and National Conferences around the country. Tony was born without arms, due to a drug his mom was prescribed during pregnancy, Tony learned to play the guitar with feet.

Tony was one of the Keynote Speakers at the 2007 National Catholic Youth Conference, speaking in front of over 20,000 teens!

Tony will once again be joined by his band the "Toe Jam Band"
